

Does voting for a republican mean that we have no choice other than pay tribute to special interests and insiders. Please register my concern against abdication of the responsibility to freedom of speech and deversification of voices and opinions in our democracy.